

Manual Machinists

Job Description:

Located in Calgary, AB, Allied Centrifuge Technologies is an organization specializing in the design, manufacturing, servicing and repair of centrifuges. We are currently looking for full-time Manual machinists who is capable of working in a fast-paced growing environment, that has an eye for detail, able to produce quality work, safely and consistently. We are looking for Manual Machinists who are proficient on a variety of different types of equipment such as mills and lathes, while also having knowledge and ability to learn specific CNC machining operations.

Responsibilities:

- Ability to read, understand, and interpret drawings and diagrams.
- Plan the sequence of necessary actions for the completion of a job.
- Select and operate appropriate machines (e.g. lathes, mills) while operating them safely.
- Check output to ensure consistency with specifications.
- Experience machining to very tight tolerances in a fast-paced, repetitive machining environment.
- Ability to monitor quality by taking measurements, detecting malfunctions, troubleshooting processing; adjusting and reprogramming controls while adhering to quality assurance process and procedures.
- Ability to learn and adapt to new processes, manual machines as well as ability to learn CNC programming on multiple CNC machines.
- Knowledge of manual machining processes and machines.
- Ability to promote, comply and participate in company health and safety program and quality assurance programs.

Professional Requirements:

- Strong organizational and analytical skills.
- Strong verbal and written communication skills.
- Maintains safe operations by adhering to safety procedures and regulations.
- Ability to work effectively with limited supervision.
- Ability to learn and perform related company instructions, company processes, rework process instructions, original equipment manufacturer manuals and designs.
- Ability to meet deadlines in a timely and efficient manner.
- Demonstrate problem solving, planning, and organizational skills.

Qualification Requirements:

- Red Seal Journeymen Required; completion of a diploma training program at a college or technical school OR college diploma in related discipline; or equivalent.
- Minimum of 3 years' experience as a programmer/machinist in a manufacturing environment.

Salary:

- Negotiable and determined based on work experience.
- Full benefits after 3-month probationary term.